

Roles and Responsibilities

Alberta Energy Regulator

- Is responsible for implementing the Water Act that governs the allocation of water (quantity) from natural water bodies for licences related to oil and gas activity. This includes the suspension of temporary diversion licences or other action regarding the Water Act during water shortages.

Notes